

FREE Workshop for Educators

George Washington and the War for Independence in New Jersey

Morristown National Historical Park will be the host of a FREE regional workshop sponsored by Mount Vernon focusing on Washington as Commander in Chief and the role played by New Jersey in the war. The workshop will be held at the Washington's Headquarters Museum on Friday November 15, 2013. The featured historian is Ed Lengel, author of several books including General George Washington: A Military Life and This Glorious Struggle: George Washington's Revolutionary War Letters. Additional partner institutions include The Crossroads of the American Revolution and the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History. (Registration required)

View the schedule \(PDF\)

Note: Participating teachers will receive CEU certificates from the New Jersey Historical Commission.

Where: Morristown National Historical Park
Washington's Headquarters Museum
30 Washington Place, Morristown NJ 07960
<http://www.nps.gov/morr>

When: Friday, November 15, 2013

Check In: 9:00am- 9:30am

Registration is required, click here to register <http://gwmvmorristown.eventbrite.com/>

NOTE: Utilizing this site is the ONLY way to register/obtain tickets—do not call Morristown NHP

For more information see http://www.mountvernon.org/educational events

9:30 a.m. – 9:45 a.m.
Welcome and Introductions

9:45 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.
George Washington, Commander in Chief: The Winter of Hardship
Ed Lengel, Editor in Chief, The Papers of George Washington

11:15 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.
A Regular Army and an Irregular War: General George Washington, Governor William Livingston, and Civil Warfare in New Jersey During the American Revolution
Michael Adelberg, Historian and Author

12:15 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Lunch (provided)

1:00- p.m. – 2:15 p.m.
Common Core Connections
Sandra Trenholm, Director, The Gilder Lehrman Collection

2:15 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.
The Revolutionary War in New Jersey: Round-robin through The Morristown Museum Galleries
Ford Mansion, which served as Washington's headquarters.

3:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
A Conversation with James Craik, Surgeon General of the Continental Army